

UPDATE ON MOUNT AGUNG 17 MARCH 2019

Dear Guests,

Mount Agung has erupted this morning consecutively at 08.03 and 10:30 WITA. The ash column height observed  $\pm 600$  m above the peak ( $\pm 3,742$  m above sea level) and also observed to be gray with the intensity being leaning eastward. This eruption is recorded on a seismogram with a maximum amplitude of 5 mm and a duration of  $\pm 1$  minute 16 seconds.

Until now, the activity status of the volcano of Mt Agung is unchanged at Level III (Standby).

The danger zone remains around the crater and within 4 km of the crater, far from Gaia. Estimated of danger zone are dynamic and continuously evaluated and can be changed at any time following the most recent / latest of Mt. Agung observation data.

Guests are reminded not to go within the 4 km danger zone, as eruption and ash emission may continue and eruptions may happen at any time.

Please see map below.

Bali Airport remains open and is functioning normally. Gaia-Oasis is monitoring flight alerts and ash reports daily. We have prepared a detailed options guide and we offer 1 night's free stay in the unlikely event that your flight is delayed due to Airport closure.

Gaia-Oasis is monitoring flight alerts and ash reports daily. We have prepared a detailed options guide and we offer 1 night's free stay should your flight be delayed due to Airport closure. Please refer to the Safety Folder in your room for more information re: volcano preparedness.

We emphasise that Gaia-Oasis is not in the path of the volcano;

We are in a Safe Evacuation Zone over 30kms NW of Mt Agung.

Gaia is only at low risk of ashfall, which generally does not pose any longer-term risks for people without chronic lung conditions or severe heart disease.

We will not be subject to volcanic gases, lava flow or any life-threatening situation.

Gaia receives updates within a short period of any major event from local authorities.

We will continue to keep you updated on important changes.

We ask for your prayers that the situation of Bali will soon return to normal

Om Shanti Shanti Shanti Om
